

Noibu Trial Program Terms & Conditions

By participating in this campaign, you agree to the following terms and conditions:

Eligibility: To be eligible to participate in this campaign, you must be at least 18 years old, work for or own a legitimate eCommerce website with at least 500,000 monthly sessions, and reside in a country where this campaign is legally allowed. To participate, you must deploy the Noibu script correctly, as per our instructions, for a duration of at least 14 days. The full trial period will be discussed with you prior to deployment.

Error Detection: Noibu detects errors related to your site's core eCommerce functionality, including the shopping cart, checkout process, product pages, contact forms, and coupons. Our software also detects secondary errors that impact customer experience, like user experience breaks, broken links, missing images, page loads, and more. In technical terms, Noibu detects HTTP and JavaScript errors that impede a customer's journey through your online store. Noibu's script captures every time a user experiences an error.

Payment: If the product trial results in no errors present on your website, by the sole discretion, definition and standards of our team and software, you will be eligible for a payment or donation on your behalf of $1000. Payments will be made through a payment method of our choice or through a charity of the participant's choice.

Confidentiality: You agree to keep all information provided to you during the trial period confidential and not share it with any third party without our prior written consent.

Termination: We reserve the right to terminate this campaign or your participation in it at any time and for any reason.

Modification: We reserve the right to modify these terms and conditions at any time, with or without prior notice to you.

Governing law: These terms and conditions are governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Canada.

By participating in this campaign, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to these terms and conditions.
